FATSHAN, 25th June. Since my last communication the strike of the shopkeepers and junk people aus extended con siderably. Almost all the junks have joined the movement and many even of the cooling have relinquished work. The prices of rice and of all necessaries have risen to a very high rate in consequence of there being no junks

this Work stants unrivalled. All the new Share "Singapore currency." words which the Chinese have of latey ears been jects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size is, with Good of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.

To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration:-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16.000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000. whilst TERRACE. this work contains more than 50,000 English wof Harbour, words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the graminars and THIS Company having appointed the under-other elementary works as yet published, the aigned AGENTS for their COAL student of this difficult language absolutely re- (AKAIKE and DAIJEO) in HONGKONG, they or as above. quires examples to display the various application or trimmed in Bunkers, at prices to be have one general meaning.
